

Personal Gift Giving

As the holidays approach, it's time to put on your thinking cap and come up with gift ideas for your loved ones. What will you get them this year? Another sweater for Dad? Another pair of earrings for your sister? If these ideas make you groan, change your focus. There are plenty of items that you can have custom framed to make original gifts that are sure to put on a smile on their face.

Here are some ideas:

- Do they have a favorite artist or a special interest? Buy an art print and have it custom framed.
 - A mirror frame or other decorative accessory.
 - A family portrait, children's school pictures, or other photos.
 - A shadow box frame containing photos and objects from a special event or memorable occasion.
 - Give a collector a framed item that will add to their collection (perhaps a figurine or a limited edition coin).
 - Artwork done by a child for a parent, grandparent, or other relative.
 - A frame design that celebrates the holiday season to be enjoyed year after year.
 - If you're not sure, give a gift certificate and your recipient can enjoy having something framed themselves! ■
